

The background is a dark grey or black surface with a complex, symmetrical, mandala-like pattern of stylized leaves and floral motifs. Scattered around the central text are various spices and herbs: a piece of ginger root at the top center, a red chili pepper on the top right, a small bowl of red powder (likely chili powder) above a bowl of yellow powder (likely turmeric), and another bowl of yellow powder on the right. On the left, there's a red chili pepper, a bowl of yellow powder, and a bowl of dark seeds (likely mustard seeds) at the bottom. Fresh green herbs are also scattered throughout. The overall aesthetic is elegant and thematic for a curry buffet.
